

YOU'RE INVITED!

THE CULTURAL HISTORY OF THE FOREST PRESERVES: PREHISTORIC VILLAGES TO CONTEMPORARY COMMUNITIES

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2016 • 1 PM - 4 PM

THE FIELD MUSEUM

James Simpson Theatre, 1400 S Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, IL 60605

Join us to learn about the Chicago area and its long tradition as a crossroads where diverse cultural groups and ideas have come together.

Hear local archaeologists and historians discuss Chicago's prehistory, early history, contemporary Native American communities and the cultural significance of the bison, now our National Mammal.

A Q&A will follow the presentation and artifacts recovered from the Forest Preserves will be on display. Welcoming remarks will be delivered by Toni Preckwinkle, President of the Forest Preserves of Cook County.

4:00 – 4:45 pm: Optional docent-led exhibit tour with purchase of museum general admission, contact ewoodward@fieldmuseum.org for more information.

REGISTER

The event is FREE, but space is limited.
fpculturalhistory.eventbrite.com

DIRECTIONS

Attendees should enter The Field Museum through the West Entrance.

Parking is available in the Soldier Field North Garage for $22. Public transportation is encouraged. For directions and more information on parking, please visit fieldmuseum.org/visit

The Field
Museum

ILLINOIS STATE
ARCHAEOLOGICAL SURVEY
PRAIRIE RESEARCH INSTITUTE

PRAIRIE
RESEARCH INSTITUTE
ILLINOIS
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS AT URBANA-CHAMPAIGN

This event is co-hosted by The Field Museum, the Illinois State Archaeological Survey, and The Forest Preserves of Cook County.